Walking with Jesus with Pastor Eric Spivey

Doing life together requires investment.

Too often in today's culture, church becomes a commodity to consume rather than a faith community to share. With church as a commodity, we shop for churches like we shop for cars – looking for the ones with all the bells and whistles. With church as a commodity, we attend just enough to say we've been like a monthly trip to the gym. With church as a commodity, we want to get just as much out of the programs without being tied down like a month-to-month cable subscription. With church as a commodity, we want just enough Jesus to make us feel good, but not too much to challenge how we live our lives.

When we do life together, we become the antidote to church as a commodity. Rather than shopping for churches, we listen to God's spirit to guide us to where our presence can make the most difference for the Kingdom of God. Rather than attending to get just enough worship, we attend worship and church for spiritual survival – we grieve not being there and count the days until we return. Rather than milking the church's programs, we invest our lives in one another as we grow as missional disciples. Rather than getting just enough Jesus, when we do life together as disciples of Jesus, our lives are radically reoriented around the ways of Jesus. Doing life together requires investment. Instead of looking for what we get out of church, when we do life together, we invest our lives and money into the people and institutions that give us life.

In 2019, First Baptist Cornelia needs each of us to invest in her. This year, let me encourage you to invest in First Baptist in the following ways:

• Invest yourself – We do life together only when each of us are willing to bring ourselves to the process. When we hold back, afraid of being rejected for who we really are, we miss the gift of life that comes from true community. Will you make an effort to take down some of the masks that shield you and commit to being real with others at FBC? Your spiritual life and church experience will grow exponentially.

EMPTY IS THE NEW FULL

Our plates are full, piled high and spilling over with commitments, responsibilities, and activities. Schedule-driven living leaves us empty and spent in all the wrong ways. But emptying our schedule for Sabbath offers fullness that helps us move from day to day with more peace, more joy, and more opportunity to Breathe. lifeway.com/breathe

- ◆ A Sunday Morning fellowship group for adult women of ALL AGES
- ◆ Begins Sunday, January 6, 9:45-10:40 A.M.
- ◆ Location: Room 212, to the left as you enter from the playground
- ◆ Led by Cele LeBlanc, assisted by Evelyn McClain
- ◆ First Topic, a 7-week study ending February 17. "Breathe"-A journey through scripture to learn to enjoy life the way God meant it to be.
- ◆ If you aren't attending Sunday School regularly, visit to see if this group is for you.

Unified Mission Offering

Through the Unified Mission Offering, First Baptist Cornelia supports the missionaries of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship. Here a couple of their stories

JANÉE ANGEL, CBF field personnel in Antwerp, Belgium

"We spend a lot of our time with people from a Muslim background. They come from all over the Middle East and North Africa to find refuge, hope and a future in Belgium.

By the time they arrive in Europe, many of them have even abandoned their Muslim faith, believing God cannot exist since people are killing each other in their homelands.

That is where we come in...we love to tell our new friends about Jesus, the Son of God who is God. He is our refuge, hope and future!

Recently, we were visiting in the home of a young family from Iraq. I sat and listened as the wife told me about the hardships of her life in the Middle East and the freedom she has not only found in Belgium, but in Christ. She smiled when she said her favorite moment was writing 'Christian' in the line designated for religion on her son's school form.

There is true freedom in Christ!"

RICK BURNETTE, CBF field personnel and coordinator for U.S. Disaster Response

"Over 90 percent of homes in Trenton, N.C., were damaged by floodwaters from Hurricane Florence.

During a recent visit to help local volunteer coordinator, Daynette Snead, as she prepared for teams from CBF churches to assist in the recovery effort, much of our time was spent in the hard-hit neighborhood of Haiti (pronounced hay-tie). Residents were still cleaning up—some preparing to rebuild, while others face uncertainty due to lack of resources.

This close-knit community includes the family of Ms. Mattie, pictured above, whose husband drowned during Hurricane Floyd in 1999. Even though they recently lost possessions and must replace the floor and walls of Ms. Mattie's home, this is a joyful and resilient family, blessing us with a song of benediction as we departed.

Speaker: Judge Chan Caudell

Since 2011, Judge Caudell has served as a Superior Court Judge for the Mountain Judicial Circuit. He also directs one of the local Drug Courts. He is a member of First Baptist, a board member of North Georgia Technical College, and a member of the Habersham Rotary. From Cornelia, Chan graduated from the University of Georgia and from Mercer Law School. He is married to Tammy and has two teenage children.

A WORD from Pastor John:

THE POWER OF AN INVITATION:

Back in November, our youth group had an event called Friends Giving. Our teens were encouraged to bring a friend, as they are encouraged to do for EVERYTHING we do in our youth ministry, but this was a special event designed for fun and fellowship. Our own Macy Fears brought three friends, one of those was an exchange student at White County High School from Amsterdam in The Netherlands. Stein had a wonderful time. Kelly Coker, Macy's mom, works at White County High, and continued to reach out to Stein and develop a relationship with her. Through that relationship (and Stein attending a powerful funeral of a child that died who Kelly was close to), Stein told Kelly that she knew she needed Christ in her life. Kelly shared this story with our youth on December 12, and we got together some books we had here to give to Stein to help her grow in her faith. GOD CAN USE A SIMPLE INVITATION TO CHANGE A LIFE! Our church youth group, and especially the intentional invitation of Macy Fears, will have life long implications in the life of a young girl halfway around the world in ways that we will probably never see. IT ALL STARTS WITH AN INVITATION. Who will you invite to be a part of what God is doing here at First Baptist Cornelia? Begin praying now for God to give you a willing heart, and He will open doors for you in ways that you can never imagine!

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE NEW YEAR: I came across this recently as I was reading and pondering the changes that 2019 will bring for so many people, including myself. "Change is one constant, but the other constant is God himself, the One who never changes, who sees the end from the beginning, and for whom the future holds no surprises. God has made us a solemn promise: to be with us always. That promise holds wherever we are, and is not invalidated by the unexpected. In whatever success we enjoy, amidst whatever failure we suffer, God has promised to be there with us." I hope this thought will encourage you this month, as it did me!

STUDENT MINISTRIES

A G A P E DISCIPLESHIP: GROWING DISCIPLES

Happy New Year! It is hard to believe we are not only starting a new month, but a whole new year! I would like to extend a sincere thank you to everyone who sent me Christmas greetings and gifts. I am so thankful to be your children’s minister. THANK YOU for your continued love and support.

Growing kingdom kids Wild about God!
Minister of Children & Outreach
Mrs. Carrie Trotter — 770-617-7589
fbcorneliachildren@gmail.com

The start of a New Year is a time to reflect on our lives and look for areas that need improvement. We all have areas of our lives that need to improve, no matter what our age. We all need to update and reboot from time to time. Our elementary children will be focusing on the theme: “Operating System: Update the Way You React.” We will be studying Proverbs and learning about “Self-Control: Choosing To Do What You Should Even When You Don’t Want To.” As we follow Jesus, His love transforms us. His Spirit gives us the power to show self-control. We can follow His example and choose to do what we should do—instead of what we want to do.

One of the wonderful things about preschoolers is they know they have needs, and they are not afraid to let you know. That’s a good thing and something we want to use to help preschoolers see another need they have – a need we all have – and that is Jesus. Yes, I need Jesus is the focus this month. And, we know from experience that the older preschoolers get, the more they will need Jesus. Life can be tough. Having a friend like Jesus who knows us, loves us, and has the power to help us can truly change our lives. After all, that’s what friends do. They help one another when they need it. And there is no better friend than Jesus.

	PRESCHOOL	ELEMENTARY
Week 1	Bible Story: The Four Friends - Mark 2:1-12 Bottom Line: My friends need Jesus.	Bible Story: City with Broken Walls - Proverbs 25:28 Bottom Line: Doing what you should can keep you safe.
Week 2	Bible Story: Healing the Deaf Man - Mark 7:32-37 Bottom Line: I need to ask Jesus for help.	Bible Story: Slow to Anger - Proverbs 16:32 Bottom Line: Think before you lose your temper.
Week 3	Bible Story: Healing the Blind Man - John 9:1-12 Bottom Line: Everyone needs Jesus.	Bible Story: Choose Your Words Carefully - Proverbs 12:18 Bottom Line: Choose your words carefully
Week 4	Bible Story: Calming the Storm - Matthew 8:23-27 Bottom Line: I need Jesus when I am scared.	Bible Story: Too Much of a Good Thing - Proverbs 25:16 Bottom Line: Know when to stop
Memory Verse	“YOU ARE EVERYTHING I NEED.” PSALM 119:57, NIV	“GOD’S POWER HAS GIVEN US EVERYTHING WE NEED TO LEAD A GODLY LIFE.” 2 PETER 1:3A, NIRV
Bottom Line	Key Question: Who do I need? Bottom Line: I NEED JESUS.	Self-Control: Choosing to do what you should even when you don’t want to.

As I start a new year, I too am reflecting about my own life and areas where I need to improve. One area that God has brought to my attention recently is RELATIONSHIPS. My life goal is to lead respectfully, responsibly, and relationally. This year I will work at building relationships with other people in my life. One way I want to do this is to slow down long enough to acknowledge the important people who are walking this ministry road with me. I literally could not do children’s ministry work without the MANY volunteers who work each week. So, please join me as I recognize and thank our children’s Sunday School teachers: Marlee & Ryan Fleming, Nicole Souther, Beverly Sterghos, Christine Ta, & Olga Vyrkikovskaia. Each of these wonderful people faithfully come each week ready to love on and teach the youngest people of our church. I am so thankful for their commitment and heart of service

Stewardship

Why do you invest in First Baptist Cornelia? Stewardship of our resources are investments in God’s work through our church. When you invest your time as a volunteer, you are investing your gifts, your talents and life in the people of our church. When you invest your money through gifts to the church, you are investing in mission, worship, ministries like MOSAIC, personal ministries of our staff, and our facilities for the community.

Do you think of your gifts as an investment? They are eternal investments in God’s Kingdom. There are lots of ways to use our gifts in the world, thank you for investing in First Baptist Cornelia.

Over the next several months in worship, we will begin periodic faith stories asking individuals to answer this question. These faith stories will be short stories about our life together. Everyone – from newest members to church leaders – are invited to participate. If you would like to tell your FBC Cornelia story, please contact Pastor Eric @ espivey@fbccornelia.org.

A MUSIC NOTE:

I must begin by offering my deep gratitude to the Sanctuary Choir for their wonderful ministry this Advent/Christmas season. They have been committed all fall to prepare weekly for worship leadership and for the Joyous Noel Christmas concert. I could not be more proud of them! My gratitude, also, extends to you, FBC, for supporting our Music Ministry so wonderfully.

Exciting plans are underway for both our weekly worship services and additional special events featuring our Sanctuary Choir. You are invited to join us on Wednesday evenings at 7:10 p.m. as we discover what new things God is doing in our community of faith.

Grace & Peace,
Randy

- Invest your time – We do life together best when we are around each other. Yes, trips and weekends at the lake are wonderful, but we miss the power of community. Will you make an effort to spend more time together with others at FBC this year?
- Invest your talents. We do life together when each of us are sharing your gifts with other another. You are someone God wants to use to further God’s Kingdom. This year, will you commit to looking and listening for new ways to be used by God at FBC.
- Invest your money. Quite frankly, as we begin 2019, our Stewardship/Budget/Finance committee needs to see a glimpse of our financial commitments for the coming year. Giving was down in 2018. We are a financially conservative church, we base our spending on our giving patterns. In order for us to accomplish the ministry plans for 2019 such as more choral/orchestra ministry events like the one we held in December, we need to be financially strong. This year, will you commit to continuing to financially invest in the work, ministry, and staff of FBC so that more great things can be accomplished as we do life together? Doing life together requires investment.

I look forward to celebrating this year, the many ways God takes our simple investments and multiplies them for God’s Kingdom.

I’ll see you Sunday,
Pastor Eric

SENIOR ADULT

MINISTRY

No one needs to remind senior adults that we are in a constant battle against a process we all call "aging". The decline in physical strength, the loss of balance, the ever present reality that some organs in our body don't function as well as they once did, etc. Need I say more? So what I am about to tell you needs to be taken seriously: While we must all deal with the inevitable process of aging, we must not and we need not allow that ever present reality to define our outlook on life. If you ask any Christian what is the essence of our being, we would all quickly agree that our spiritual self, our soul, is what really matters. When Christ sets forth instruction in God's word, He addresses us spiritually. If our spiritual outlook is strong and healthy, then we can rise above our physical limitations. I offer you this spiritual truth: Your soul is not subject to the forces that war against our physical self. The soul within us is exempt from the aging process. If that truth sinks deep into your consciousness, it will transform your daily outlook. Let the vitality and strength of your soul set our agenda for your walk with Christ.

Here is our lineup for January, the opening days of a great new opportunities for us to honor God:

"Group Discussion/Memoir Writing":

On January 14th, Monday at 10 AM we will meet with all who have an interest in writing your memoirs. This will bring together some good discussion and enable us to get started with our memoirs. If you cannot attend that day, I will want to hear from you so I can get you started on your own.

"Shepherd's Ministry Underway":

I indicated when I signed on for this volunteer task as senior coordinator that we need to have activities and we need to do ministry. You have inspired me many times with your willingness to serve. Our homebound members needs visits and cards. If you know of someone who needs this service let me know.

"Primetimers"

On February 1st we will hold our next Primetimers with a Valentine theme at the heart of our program. Please sign up outside the office quickly. Remember that I must call the catering people five days before we meet. Don't wait until the last minute. The cost will be $10. We exceeded all expectations last month with 60 people in attendance.

FBC COMMITTEE & MINISTRY TEAM ORIENTATION

Sunday, January 27

5:00 pm

Supper will be provided

All committee and ministry team members need to attend. This year's meeting will include a conversation with the Bylaws Committee around proposed revisions to the church bylaws. This will be a vital time for each person to have a say in our revisions.

Bylaws Revision Process

The FBC Bylaws Committee has been working on revisions to our Constitution and Bylaws over the last few years. In 2019, the committee will hold a series of listening feedback sessions for the church as whole. Your input is vital to make these revisions as best as they can be. Their goal is for the church to vote on these revisions in a special church conference on March 24. Here is the schedule.

January 15, 2019: Proposed Bylaw Revision placed on website.

January 27: Committees/Ministry Team Training event (5-7 pm): Committees/Teams provide feedback on proposed Bylaw Revisions.

February 3 (after church): Bylaws Committee hosts luncheon for church members to give feedback on proposed bylaws revision.

March 3 - Deacons Leadership Meeting: Proposed Bylaw Revision (including feedback from deacons, committees, and church) presented to Deacons. Deacons will vote on the proposed bylaws to send to the church.

March 17 - Potluck Church Conference (12:30 pm): Proposed Bylaw Revision presented to church for discussion.

Sunday, March 24 - Called Church conference after worship: Proposed Bylaw Revision voted on by congregation. No discussion.
